Dear Dr. Farrelly:

Town of Babylon Supervisor Rich Schaffer and the Department of Human Services invites you and your students to participate in our 18th Annual Hispanic Heritage Festival on Saturday, October 15, 2016. Event details are as follows:

18th Annual Hispanic Heritage Festival
Saturday, October 15, 2016 * 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Lindenhurst High School * 300 Charles Street, Lindenhurst, NY
Theme: "Hispanics Americans: Embracing, Enriching and Enabling America"
Formal program begins at 11:00 a.m.
Festival immediately following program * Free Community Event * All are welcome to attend!

If your students would like to submit artwork or poetry for our Hispanic Heritage Month Festival, the deadline for submissions is Friday, September 30th. We are also looking for student volunteers to assist with the program. Volunteers will receive community service credit for their time. Please feel free to contact our office at (631) 464-4340 and speak with Traci Fonville to confirm your participation.

Thank you for your consideration and we look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Madeline A. Quintyne
Commissioner, Human Services
