The Pillowcase Project is a preparedness education program for grades 3-5 that teaches students about personal and family preparedness and safety skills, local hazards, and basic coping skills. Red Cross volunteers lead students through a "Learn, Practice, Share" framework to engage them in disaster preparedness and survival skills.

The American Red Cross is a tax-exempt organization and does not intervene, attempt to influence, or show bias in any campaign or political activity. The Red Cross does not endorse any candidate or ballot proposal, and does not provide or financial or other support for candidates or political organizations.
